Niche Stagekraft – Committed to growth of theatre

Niche Stagekraft was established in year 2002, by Mr. Jitendra R. Pawar, to revive the dying art form of English theatre. Since its inception, this theatre movement has grown stronger year on year. Today Niche Stagekraft is identified with quality work in theatre, and providing a platform to deserving talent. Niche Stagekraft combines human emotions, creative passion and modern day professionalism to create magic on stage.

Following is a glimpse of the work done in promotion of theatre by Niche Stagekraft.

- Niche Stagekraft has 24 play productions ranging from Classics of Chekov to Contemporary themes to its credits in 7 years.
- Niche Stagekraft has contributed to the social causes and has been actively involved in fund raisers and has staged plays based on Cancer, Aids, and ill effects of tobacco.
- Under Children’s Creative Theatre, workshops are conducted for school children during vacations, aimed at providing exposure to the multiple benefits of theatre.
- The Corporate training program is designed to develop theatrical skills amongst corporate sector.
- Script writing contest for talented writer.
- Niche Stagekraft has brought world renowned award winning plays to the Pune - the latest being Rajat Kapoor’s – Hamlet the Clown Prince with many more in the pipeline.

Today Niche Stagekraft takes a giant leap in their ongoing process of theatre development; as it conducts the first ever Inter Collegiate Competition (English / Hindi) NieSta.

This will provide the students a platform to hone, create, and display their creative skills with a single goal of creative excellence. This is also an opportunity to the students to interact and socialise with their peers in a healthy competitive atmosphere.
